

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

In view of the foregoing amendments and the following remarks, the applicants respectfully submit that the pending claims are not rendered obvious under 35 U.S.C. § 103. Accordingly, it is believed that this application is in condition for allowance. If, however, the Examiner believes that there are any unresolved issues, or believes that some or all of the claims are not in condition for allowance, the applicants respectfully request that the Examiner contact the undersigned to schedule a telephone Examiner Interview before any further actions on the merits.

The applicants will now address each of the issues raised in the outstanding Office Action.

Rejections under 35 U.S.C. § 103

Claims 1-4 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 6,285,679 ("the Dally patent") in view of the paper "Credit Based Flow Control for ATM Networks" ("the Kung paper"). Since these claims have been canceled, this ground of rejection is rendered moot. The applicants reserve the right to pursue the canceled claims in another application.

Conclusion

In view of the foregoing amendments and remarks, the applicants respectfully submit that the pending claims are in condition for allowance. In particular, all rejected claims have been canceled.

Remaining claims 5-20 were allowed. Accordingly, the applicants request that the Examiner pass this application to issue.

Respectfully submitted,
